

4.2.2

Transportation Asset Management in Michigan

Presenter

Gil Chesbro
Michigan DOT
chesbrog@michigan.gov

Co-Presenter

Michigan's Asset Management Council has now completed its third year of collecting road condition data for all federal-aid eligible roads in Michigan. Each year over 44,000 miles of roads have been driven and visually rated. GIS and GPS technologies were crucial to the successful collection, management, and analysis of road condition data. This presentation will show how those technologies were used to support transportation asset management.