

1.3.3

Maryland Success Stories

Presenter

Kenny Miller

State of Maryland

Annapolis, MD

ken.miller@doit.state.md.us

Co-Presenter

Maryland has a successful centerline partnership program between the Maryland State Highway Administration and the 24 local jurisdictions which map and manage local roadways. This partnership developed a common data model, automated processes for updates and procedures for edits resulting in feature level metadata down to the segment level. A project is now underway to include locally maintained point addresses into the centerline file.