DEFCON 12 - The Hackers Underworld

Presenter

Scott McFall
Nebraska State Patrol
smcfall@nsp.state.ne.us

Co-Presenter

Terry Pell & Jeb Barger

The 12th Annual DEFCON, the oldest continuously running hacker convention, took place at the end of July in Las Vegas at the Alexis Park Hotel. For three days, black hats and white hats met exchanging ideas, and presenting new and sometimes scary information on how to attack and defend computer networks. Scott McFall, Terry Pell, and Jeb Barger will give a briefing of some of the topics discussed at the conference including Google Hacking, Terminal Services / Citrix Security, Wireless Infrastructure Issues, and new ideas in securing your network.
