

4.3.3

Risk-Based Asset Management for DOTs and Local Governments

Presenter

Jason Amadori

CMO

DTS

jamadori@dtsgis.com

Co-Presenter

Many agencies are tasked with doing more with less. The foundation of this process involves spending money at the right time and on the right assets during its life-cycle. This presentation will illustrate the use of Risk-based prioritization to support agency decision-making. The main focus will be on the creation and maintenance of GIS data to support this process over time so that a uniform plan can be monitored and executed over time.