

5.1.3

Minnesota Shared Centerlines Initiative

Presenter

Peter Morey

Director, Data Systems & Coordination
Minnesota DOT
peter.morey@state.mn.us

Co-Presenter

Dan Ross

State Geographic Information Officer
Minnesota Geospatial Office
Dan.Ross@state.mn.us

MnDOT in partnership with the Twin Cities Metro GIS, the Minnesota Geographic Information Office and Local and Tribal agencies are piloting a new shared GIS road centerlines application using Esri's Roads and Highways. The purpose is to develop, test, refine, publish and perpetuate an authoritative, multi-purpose, public-domain road centerline spatial dataset resource representing the entire state of Minnesota. Each agency will maintain their portion of the network and have access to the entire dataset.